Instructions & Assessment for Individual Reflective Essay

Due Thursday, 3-22

In two to four typed, double-spaced pages, describe your experience with this project. You can draw on all of your materials and your memories. Consider these questions:

1. As a result of this project, how did your perception(s) of your chosen poem change?
2. As a result of this project, how did your perception(s) of poetry change?
3. What was your favorite part of completing this project, and why?
4. What was your least favorite part of this project, and why?

5. How did this project challenge you?

You can answer the questions in any order. While your essay does not have to have a formal thesis statement, it should have an introduction and a conclusion, and it should have transitions between paragraphs.
